J. GREEN, Manager.

Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE and LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest and largest of the Insurance Companies, has established an agency in this city. The head-office are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Belfast, Cork, Limerick, and Waterford.

The ROYAL is remarkable for the responsibility and liberality of its settlements; for the largest life premium (£6 per cent per annum) ever underwritten; and during 15 years by only 2 of the numerous cases of its transactions, whereof 1 of £500 in one insurance for 1851, and 1 of £1,000 in one insurance for 1861, have been disputed, or £500 in one insurance for 1851, was, which has given rise to the general "Caveat" of "Beware of the Royal," and which has cost the Company a million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; for its large and increasing fund; for its mortality tables. Hence its English power of all countries, and hence its Spanish, which is the highest known in the Spanish Peninsula.

The report for 1863 shows that "all the property of the Company, amounting to £2,000,000 sterling, is the property;" the annual new insurances one million sterling, the former, during 12 years, 1851 to 1862, was but one half, and the profits, £100,000 sterling.

The Royal Exchange Assurance Co. are authorized to issue policies for Fire and Life to any loan amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its business in this country, and to secure the annual income of £600,000. Life claims are to be settled without reference to England. Prospectuses and Rates may apply to

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1864.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

If the 'Mersey' does not arrive today, the 'Fairy' will probably bring us news of the Southampton mail, June 9th. The 'Reforma' announces that a Brazilian gun-boat will leave Montevideo in a few days, with supplemental mail for the French packet from Rio Janeyro. This will afford a chance of writing.

The Montevidean paper 'Plata' has a fierce attack on Messrs. Thornton, Elizalde and Saraiva, in thanks for their mediation. Our neighbors do not pay any attention to the rumors of armed intervention by Brazil and Buenos Ayres.

What is doing in Congress? is the general question which every one puts, but no one can answer; in fact up to the present our expensive legislature has only succeeded in passing what is called negative measures. The steamboat company bills have been thrown out. The British claim bill has met a like fate, and the little Telegraph law only narrowly passed by striking out the principal clause, namely the admission of materials free of duty. Two months have now gone by, and what has Congress done? Not one solitary important question has been decided, and yet the country has to pay 50,000 pats, for this lost time. Men who are so well paid as the congress men, and who have so much time to pull up for, should sit from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. If we live in a democratic country, then let our legislators keep democratic hours, and instead of beginning at 12 or 1 o'clock in the day like a lot of lazy aristocrats, let them adopt the more republican hours of 8 or 9 o'clock a.m. The day is gone before the secretary has got through the reading of the former minutes, and then if a few insipid orators take it into their heads to offer (as they usually do) some benighted opinions, the very committee men are kept from writing their news reports. President Mitre, if he wants the Argentine legislative clock to keep going must get a stronger mainspring, for the present is too weak, and if the hon new clock, guaranteed for 20 years, keeps up ticking until next next October, it's the most it will do. One thing there can be no doubt, and that is that Congress does too little and costs too much.

The Paraguayan Government we hear with the most unfeigned pleasure, is about to establish a large cotton plantation in the Gran Chaco. We feel confident that as President Lopez has undertaken this plantation he will carry it out with the same signal success which has marked every other reform that he has introduced in the country which he rules.

The news from Bolivia is of a rather warlike character; the Government has called for a levy of 12,000 men; some think that it is to help. Peru, whilst others say that there are very serious difficulties with Paraguay.

The manager of the cotton planting company in Parana, Sr. Zavala paid us a visit on Monday. We understand that he purposes entering into an arrangement with some practical American cotton planter, if any can be found in this city.

The number of wounded soldiers carried on litters through the streets is becoming quite alarming. Scarcely a day passes that we do not see one or more of these unpleasant processions—yet we never hear anything about the fights which occasion them.

The Chilian steamer Huansy has arrived from England, but her dates from that country are only up to the 27th May. The Liverpool steamer Paraguay brought us three days later news. The Huansy brought several passengers; we believe they are all for Valparaiso.

One of the most amusing features of the Peruvian question, is that the people in the Fortin de Cerro have taken it a matter up, and we see two Irish signatures have signed some document addressed to Mr. Bilbao. The petition to Congress has been sent in, but it is believed Argentine legislators will have it laid on the table.

The news from the provinces by the last steamer is rather important. In Rioja there is another revolution, headed by the very man who killed the Chacho. At present little is known of it, but attaches the greatest importance to it. Government troops have been sent out in chase. In Rosario we read that Mr. Perkins, the talented editor of the 'Ferro-Carril,' has sent into the Legislature a proposal to pave the streets. A more necessary project could not be introduced. Messrs. Oroño and Sotomayor have set a noble example to Argentine capitalists, the former having subscribed for 100 shares, and the latter 40 shares of the Argentine Central Railway Company. The 'Nacional' makes a slight mistake, when it states that all the shares are subscribed for: probably our colleague wants to save some Argentine capitalists the trouble of subscribing. May more wishes to subscribe for a thousand shares, or more, let him call at our office, and we promise them to him at par. Let the Rosarinos publish this.

The most irreligious set of men in town were the auctioneers, but thanks to M. Cazon they have been converted. Now Town and Commission days, when their places, and we perceive that these gentlemen can only find time on Sunday to hold their meetings. Will the Chief of Police please notify, or fine them? It is a scandal which should not be allowed.

Yesterday, the funeral of Mr. William Tandy, deceased, took place. He ceased, we believe, had been in the Argentine navy and was a pilot.

The Olden and Biraben beef is the great topic of the day. Yesterday, Messrs. Olden sent an sample barrel of preserved beef, one two months, and the other two years', old, in the most perfect state of preservation. Parties in town interested in the question, would do well to come to our office, and see the samples. We call attention to an interesting communication in another column on this subject.

M. Mansilla, we perceive, has taken up the recruiting question, and opposes to Mr. Mitre and Torrent a scheme with vigour. These military questions have but slight interest for us, as we believe, that the generals, officers, &c., we would also have to pay for them.

The most killing politeness has been paid to the Brazilian Minister since his arrival. Indeed President Mitre's own private coach was waiting to receive him.

The 'Tribuna' comes down tremendously on Dr. Elizalde for a leading article in yesterday's paper; we think however that our colleague takes a wrong view of the matter, as M. Elizalde has, as we have taken it to effect public ends, and therefore merits the approbation and not the censure of the press. We believe that President Aguirre's Government stands in precisely the same illegal condition as Flores in simply proposing to the congress measures, since Flores never established a Provisional Government. M. Elizalde has his faults no doubt, but his conduct in the present affair reflects upon him the greatest honor.

The steamer Paron left for Rosario on Monday, and will return to day; we have not yet heard about the last finest boats in the river; she will leave on her usual days, that is to say Thursday and Sunday.

Town was rife with all sorts of rumour about Flores yesterday: one had it that Flores and Aguirre had at last come to blows, others said that Flores were at last fighting, whilst a few stated that Flores had died again. The latter version we believe is the correct one. The Brazilian Minister sends the Paranahyba for Rio Janeyro this day with special despatches.

By the by, what's the news about what is going on in the camp, unless they look into the 'Standard,' as our colleagues very rarely occupy themselves with news of importance. There is always a roar of indignation from all quarters of the camp, as the Government we hear is taking up soldiers in every corner of the country, and that numbers of men are being enlisted, and every one asking what it is all for—at the public meeting held in Temperley, England had better look out, but the general belief is that the men are being gathered for a pounce on Montevideo. In the very Lamas de Farmara, the enlisting is going on, and all the papelletas issued won't save the gauchos.

The steamer eagle, 'Le Boy,' has been at last landed by Messrs. Canero, and will be ready to run in Barracas fifteen days.

A fine fresh sheep farmer from the South called on us yesterday—he is driving his sheep up to the banks of the Carcarana district: he states that he has rented two square leagues at the rate of four thousand paper dollars per square league. Our friend in the camp who are paying 6 and 8000 dols. rent for a puesto ought to look out for these things.

MONTE VIDEO.

The court martial held on Robinson and four others for their attempt to carry off the vice-consul Antigi (pelaton) was held on the 6th, lasting seven hours. Colonel Perez delivered a fine speech in defence of one of the prisoners. The 'Plata' states that Robinson confessed that one Juan Jose Aguiar had bribed him with 20,000 dols on the guarantee of Sor Llavallol of B. Ayres, if he would take the steamer to a point of the coast where General Flores would meet him and afterwards proceed to capture Oriental war-steamer 'Villa Salto' the accused, however, writes a letter from prison to the 'Reforma' contradicting all this. Robinson has been condemned to four years banishment, two of the engineers to two years imprisonment; the other two (Englishmen) have been acquitted.

General Moreno writes on the evening of the 6th from San Roman that he obliged Flores to strike his tent at Rincon de Pando, and that Sen Gabriel: a part of the Colorado had crossed at Punta Lucia Chico. By latest accounts Flores had arrived at Martin Chico. On the 18th the Government published an amnesty to all persons in arms against it, offering also to recognize all the officers in the grades they held before joining Flores: this measure seems useless, only one Capt Cosio, aide-de-camp to Caravallo having accepted the same.

The Brazilian steamer Hunmay 823 tons arrived from London on the 8th en route for Valparaiso, with 15 passengers: as her dates are only to May 27th her arrival was anticipated by the Uruguay. The collection for the relief of the Cape Verde islands has reached 500 dols, the firm of Maua and Co. appearing as the largest contributor. Mr. Lafone and three others have undertaken to get up a subscription for the wounded Danes. The funeral of Mons. Lamarque was largely attended: she was only 24 years of age, and of highly respectable family.

THE ARTIGAS COURT-MARTIAL.

The trial took place in the house of Brig Gen Flores. The judges were Generals Pino and Velazco, and Colonels Brun, Lihan, and Villasboas; Dr. Bermudez acted as Auditor, Robert Robinson, William Rogers (1st Engineer,) Peter Lovins, (2d Engineer,) Charles Beck, and Charles O'Brien were accused of a piratical attempt to carry off this war-steamer. The Government Fiscal read the pleadings and demanded four years banishment against the first two, and against the others twelve months against the third, and a severe censure on Beck and O'Brien, whose fault is considered expiated by the imprisonment already suffered. One of the prisoners' advocates was Major George Palmer, who appeared for Robinson, Rogers, and Lovins, an Englishman, in the Oriental service. After a short deliberation, the sentence was passed exactly as the Fiscal had demanded. We regret to find that one of our countrymen in so disgraceful a position, and shall have to thank the clemency of President Aguirre's Government that they were not all shot on the spot.

THE DIPLOMATIC ADIEU

The Argentine, British and Brazilian Ministers sent individual notes to the following effect, to the Oriental secretary for Foreign Affairs:

Montevideo, July 7th 1864.

"His Excellency the President of the State of Montevideo has thought fit to apprise me that he would not accept the proposals made by His Excellency Brigadier Venancio Flores, and therefore peace negotiations were at an end and hostilities to be resumed. I have, therefore, intimated the same to H'E. Gen Flores, and have thought it to have fulfilled the wishes expressed by you in your note of the 6th inst.

"All hopes of of pacification, as his Excellency informs me, are frustrated since H.E. the President insists upon 'ideas' which make any arrangement impossible. He is therefore utterly useless for me to attend by your request of the 4th inst. or to rectify some misapprehensions contained in your last note.

"I have the honor to be your obedient servant

TO H. E. Juan J. Herrera, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

PRES. AGUIRRE'S PROCLAMATION.

Fellow-citizens and inhabitants of the Republic!

After signing the bases of peace, and when the Ministers of England, La Plata and Brazil had left their aid for the fulfilment of the stipulations, the hopes of the nation have been suddenly frustrated by demands incompatible with the dignity of the State and the attributes of its President.

The fulfilment of these compromises has been made dependent on the elevation to power of a new ministry, composed of individuals who under present circumstances cannot merit my confidence. To yield to such an exigency, after making all the concessions possible, would have been to abdicate the authority that I hold.

My conscience is satisfied that I have done my best to bring about peace; and I am firmly resolved to accept the dire necessity of war rather than consent to humiliating conditions, which in the end would foster anarchy instead of restoring order.

The official documents published, of the negotiations entered into by the Argentine, Brazil and British Ministers, fully explain all that has occurred. They will serve now and hereafter to indicate the conduct and responsibility of each.

ATANASIO C. AGUIRRE.
Montevideo July 9th 1864.

THE PERUVIAN QUESTION

Everyday places the affairs of Peru in a more discreditable light. The story that Spain had annexed the Chincha Islands, for mere caprice or lust of conquest, is utterly falsified, and while Peru makes not the least move in so urgent a case, the sister republics of Ecuador and New Granada consider her undeserving of sympathy. Chile and Venezuela make verbal offers of assistance, but the Spanish garrison remains undisturbed in the islands. Bolivia offers 6000 men to repel invasion, when it is not likely the Spaniards will land on the continent. Paraguay, Brazil, and Montevideo think Admiral Pizzon has acted amiss, yet he is not much concerned for their opinions. In Lima, the late agitation has ended like the mountain in labor, and, after all, it is just as well that Peru has humbled herself and offered satisfaction to Spain. Sr. Tavira's note to the Chilian Government threatened further complications, but as England refuses to aid Peru, we may consider the matter virtually settled.

CENTRAL AMERICA

The latest Californian mails report no fighting of any consequence between the French troops and Mexican bandits: the latter are still in possession of a few small villages. Great preparations are being made to receive in a becoming manner the new emperor Maximilian.

The lilliputian republics of Nicaragua and Costa Rica have given over fighting and seriously turned to cotton planting. The President of the former had resigned, and the Chambers could not agree about electing his successor: a locust had made fearful ravages among the cotton plantations of Nicaragua, but the crop ultimately realized ten thousand quintals The Congress of Costa Rica met on the 1st, and the President declared free of duty the bagging or canvas used to bale cotton for exportation. San Salvador got a new Constitution, which is said to be very defective: small pox prevails through the republic. Honduras and Guatemala are making a close alliance, and if these two republics can amalgamate the two republics, in the absence of anything to do, for either Government.

News from New Granada is bad. The revolution in Antioquia continues, and the whole Isthmus of Panama is declared in a state of siege. General Mosquera has retired into private life. Manuel Murillo has been installed President, and introduced very oppressive measures regarding the church. The treasury bills have been rendered valueless by the skilful emission of 200,000 dols. in bogus notes they are to be all withdrawn. There is no news from Santo Domingo, the island being watched by Spanish cruisers: it is said one of the privateers is quite a naive, has been accidentally burned, and that the Spanish losses are so severe as to cause the arrival of 9000 wounded at Cuba.

Sr. OLIVERA AND Sr. POSADAS

Our readers will have perused with pleasure the letter from Sr. Olivera, at present travelling in France, to our worthy Postmaster-General. This intelligent and studious farmer advises his friend, who was the happy originator of the 'Exposicion Agricola Rural Argentina," to persevere in the course he had begun, Sr. Olivera not being content with the success of the Exhibition of Rosario comprehends something more than sheep and wool, and it is to include all the products of the Argentine fields. Sr. Olivera is also certain that a fair or exhibition of live stock ought be held in the open camp, either in the province of Santa Fe or Buenos Ayres. We should, therefore, rejoice if the graziers in each locality commence to stimulate each other by carrying out local exhibitions as in Eastern Pomerania.

Very different, however, is the question of a General Exhibition of all the products of the Argentine Republic, which would require a suitable site and the active co-operation of the National Government. Otherwise it were well for those who have valuable samples of our national products to make up a collection in the General Exhibition, as the Government has authorized us to say he will take charge of same and forward them to Sor. Balcarce, in Montevideo, from whence, who will obtain for them a gallery, where they may attract the gaze of the world, the Grand Exposition of Paris, 1865.

MR WHEELWRIGHT

To-day or to-morrow we may expect this worthy man to arrive again among us. Our readers seem to raise up men for the good of one or other part of the Globe, and it is a singular destiny which has brought this N. American citizen to identify himself with the progress of these republics. The history of the Pacific steam navigation is contained in the bust of William Wheelwright erected in each Sala de Comercio of the cities of Peru and Chili. The regeneration of the Argentine Republic will form the imagination of the Cordoba railway. The great workman is well up in years, and the present will probably be the last achievement of his life. We have to congratulate him on the favorable position of the Grand Central Co. and the success of his efforts in London to complete so gigantic an undertaking. May he live to see it happily completed, and to receive a nation's well earned gratitude.

SANITARY COMMITTEE FUND.

The subscriptions already received, including those of several Americans and two or three British subjects, are on a princely scale: they will be headed by half a dozen for one hundred silver dollars each, and then a good many for one thousand dollars, more. Some Irishmen in the city have come forward generally, and we are sure our camp friends will imitate the example Lists will be distributed from this office to our various agencies, where subscriptions will be received. Buenos Ayres will likely send over $1,000, and it will be a positive reflection on the contributors that they have helped to alleviate the pangs of the sick and wounded, and herein fulfilled a most holy and Christian obligation.

TO LET,

The handsome and commodious premises in Calle Nueva, next door to the Tribunal de Comercio: they were formerly employed as a general house of business, which having failed the late occupants have taken refuge in Chile themselves. There is a good aljibe in the yard, and every convenience for a hotel or other large establishment.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

The hopes which were lately entertained of the re-discovery of the Countess Dinople, of various relics of the celebrated library of King Matthias Corvinus, of Hungary, have terminated in disappointment. Baron Prokesch von Osten, the Austrian Internuncio to the Porte, who is known not only as a distinguished diplomatist, but as a literary man of excellent author, has sent to the Hungarian Academy an elaborate list, taken by permission of the Sultan, of all the manuscripts from that library in the possession of the Ottoman Government. There are, in all, but twenty-three volumes, which are chiefly the works of the fathers of the Church. Nothing has been found of the character so fondly imagined by the Hungarian antiquaries, who dwell on the existence of national ballads said to have been made by King Matthias. It is hoped that the original volumes, as it is said, have been rescued from the fire which recently destroyed the palace of the Seraglio.

—The Nuremburgh Courier has the following: "A melancholy event has just occurred which has created an immense sensation, particularly among the higher classes of society in this city. The Countess F., only 17 years of age, and cousin to one of the highest state functionaries, committed suicide by almost suicide lately, at Baden, by discharging a pistol at her breast. In her pocket was found a letter from a gentleman to whom she was engaged, in which he announced that circumstances would not allow him to marry her for the moment, and requested her to free him from consent she had given to the union projected between them. It appears that the young countess still lives, but that no hopes are entertained of her recovery."

Wool-growing Countries.

In these countries the number of square leagues producing sheep is as follows: First, to the north of the equator; 1st, Russia, 140,000 geographical leagues; 2d, in Asia, 234,000 do; 3d, in the North of Africa, 30,000 do.; 4th, in North America, 130,000 do. Total, 510,000 square leagues. Second, south of the equator; 1st, South of Africa, 6,000 square leagues; 2d, South America, 80,000 do.; 3d, Polynesia, 76,000 do. Total, 132,000. Apropos, 682,000 leagues (square) are disposable in the globe for the production of sheep, on the 1/14 part of the entire space, which is 7,250,500 geographical square leagues. The World Zone is generally admitted to cover 4,807,976 square leagues, so that the districts in this vast territory producing wool form the one-seventieth part, or otherwise, calculating the extension of terra firma 2,330,000 square leagues, it makes a square of 1526 leagues, in the centre of the equator, which quadruples that of the South, produces and at the same time consumes the greater part of wool in the globe. In the countries where sheep are bred ancient statistics show that for every acre there is a sheep, of which each individual consumes 10 pounds of wool, or say the annual produce of a sheep—that would give us in produce consumption 1,031,810,000 lb. of wool annually; as to the correctness of this calculation will be seen later. As the extent of territory which is given up to sheep is 682,000 measures 682,000 geographical square leagues, it is evident on a moderate average the population on each square league is 1,233 to 1,234, which is equal to a league of the Northern hemisphere and 74 to the Southern. We cannot help remarking that we believe China to produce more wool than we have stated, however this omission is more than counterbalanced by our lowering the number of the sheep contained in the tropical countries. From this more or less a correct idea may be formed of these countries which produce sheep and also of the population.

The Pope on cotton planting.

Pius IX shows himself a friend of progress in encouraging the cultivation of cotton in the States of the Church. He has offered large premiums for the most successful trials in each province, and provided seed gratis for all who wish to plant. Moreover he gives a subsidy of 25 scudi annually for each hectare (2 acres) of land so planted.

PRESERVED BEEF QUESTION.

I beg to call attention to the following passage in my letter published in your impression of 8th August, 1863: "It must be borne in mind that there are many things wholly unmarketable, such as a heavy coarse hide and fine early matured beef, an ill-fed animal and beef that can be 'pickled,' or 'salted,' which is open to no command an European market" etc.

Messrs. James Gordon & Co., state, in a report, published in the 'Standard' of the 9th inst., that "Beef in barrels (pickled) has turned out very badly, and that beef damp salted has not kept at all, and that the only tolerable article being 'carne tasajo,' or dried beef." The reason why is emphatically stated in the above passage of my letter.

It is well known to science that salt (chloride of soda) has in a marked degree the effect of coagulating and of ment the albuminous compound, ie., the nutritious matter, and "lean," "soft fat" beef parts with its albuminous compounds with the greatest facility under the action of brine. There is neither "fatty tissue" nor solidity in the flesh of an ill fed animal to "stand" the coagulating action of the saline fluid, and the antiseptic properties are wasted on the mere fibre of the beef—innutritious, indigestible fibre.

The jerked beef is only superior to the others by reason of the process dry salt being used, and the meat dried as speedily as possible. By this means the action of the salt is limited and "some" nutritive matter remains in the carne tasajo, and it would appear that this is the only means of making anything of the wretchedly fed meat killed frequently — animals driven long distances, the fat (if any) and flesh of which is in the most possible condition for taking salt. Carne tasajo would truly be a totally different aliment if made from well fed animals and dried at a suitable temperature.

In my letter, before referred to, I remarked on the comparative excellence into which every superior breed of cattle had fallen by means of the ruinous "destino" given them. The magnificent Shorthorn and Hereford, cattle, beef makers par excellence, will prove a mine of wealth to this country so soon as they are fed for beef, and are put into that condition which is essential to successful "pickling" and "salting." The European markets will then be open to the best of Buenos Ayres, and the navies of the world be supplied with it.

I may add that temperature and the state of the atmosphere are influences not to be disregarded in the slaughtering as well as the preserving of meats.

If a few of this country gentlemen, in a patriotic spirit, would undertake, with sufficient capital, to set on foot an establishment for experiments in this direction, much good would ensue to the country.

Should any such idea be entertained, I would with pleasure contribute such suggestions as are within my knowledge, for the direction of an undertaking of the kind. FARMER.

FLOTOW.

Dear Mr. Editor,

Pray be good enough to suggest to Mr. Pestalrdo, and "all whom it may concern," that the accidental death of Herr Flotow's brother is scarcely a sufficient justification for such a grave preface to the pleasant music of "Marta," as we are threatened with on Wednesday evening next.

The 'Tribuna' with that extreme accuracy which characterises its foreign intelligence, gave currency to the absurd report of the famous composer's own untimely end, although all the foreign newspapers I have seen sufficiently state that his brother was the unhappy victim. Based upon this, however (I assume the 'Tribuna's' the only paper received in the Green Room of the Opera), the lugubrious placard was posted last night in the theatre, announcing in the most approachable type, that the "requiem eternam" (to the memory of the lamented composer!) would be sung by the 'entire strength' of the company before the ruler's curtain rose.

Now, without wishing to detract from the recognised vocal ability of the supernumerary strength of the company (especially as several among which they are so well accustomed), I think you will admit that their most humorous performances are enough to provoke serious meditation, and that it would be more than ordinary mortals should be subject to, to have the 'requiem eternam' sung with the ever powering gravity which their combined forces would be sure to present.

Excuse my love of life, and believe me,

Yours and Mr. Flotow's,
NANCY.

COLON THEATRE.

Flotow not Dead.

Having seen some German papers kindly lent us by gentlemen in this city, in which it is stated that the rumor of Baron von Flotow's death was a mistake, caused by the suicide of a person of the same name, we will suppress the Requiem in to-day's performance.

We gladly give this news to the many admirers of Herr Flotow, and rejoice that the representation of Marta to-night, instead of being a tribute of regret, will be a happy celebration of the good news. THE LYRIC CO.

MORE PERUVIAN ITEMS

The 'Pueblo' gives dates from Valparaiso, May 30th. The Chilian Minister, Sr. Hurtado, was the subject of an ovation at Lima; nevertheless, it was said the Peruvian Government had given him his passports. At Arequipa they sang a Te Deum and fired a salute of 101 guns in anticipation of the recovery of the Chinchas, through the aid of Chile. The new Monitor is to be called 'Bolivar.' Two Spanish vessels from China arrived at Callao, but were not molested by the authorities. Ten thousand volunteers paraded in Lima on May 10th. The Government refused to take the Iquique steamer, returned by the Spaniards. The French Minister offered an arrangement, whereby the Spaniards would give up the islands and the differences be left to arbitration: the Government refused. It is thought in Lima that Mazarredo has exceeded his instructions, and we read that he has gone, accompanied by a friend, to Panama, intending perhaps to return to Madrid. The Chilians are talking of sending to Europe for war steamers and rifled cannon. The Mejillones question is still agitated, and the Bolivian army is quartered at Oruro. The Argentine residents at Cochipo gave a grand dinner and ball on May 25th.

CONGRESS.

On Monday the Chamber of Deputies was entertained with a bill by D. Regula Martinez, making the patacon the monetary unit of national currency. Argentine residents at Cochipo gave a grand dinner and ball on May 25th. The bill was laid on the table. The project to mobilize the National Guard was discussed and approved.

The National Senate met yesterday to consider Dr. Brougnes' claim for 75,000 dols, which was rejected by the Minister of Worship, and opposed by Srs. Rojo, Piñero, and Alsina. It passed both readings with a large majority.

Respecting the foregoing sales, it is right to remark, that in the cash sales the National Government sold 16,000 patacons in one lot. They were at once bought in by a leading bull.

The sales on time were to fill orders for English merchants, who do not like the appearance of things in general. Sales for delivery were positively nigher than for cash and the 40,000 patacons for the end of August were bought in by a regular English broker. The failure of Sr. Maza, of Montevideo, for over half a million of patacons, caused a rather unpleasant feeling on 'Change. One leading English merchant, it was said, was in for £20,000 sterling. We are happy to contradict this report, as the merchant in question is fully secured for all his advances.

The meeting for the nomination and selection of the new Board of Directors took place, but, strange to say, no one save the outgoing board attended, the merchant and brokers all left the Bolsa the moment the bell rang.

It was said, on the Bolsa, that ex-President Derqo's son had arrived this morning with special despatches for the Government, but high up parties assert it for a fact, that come what will to the paper dollar, Paucero and his men must go across.

We heard that the Augusta was chartered at 30s, to load tallow up the rivers.

Mr. Laus' letter in the 'Nacion' we greatly spoken about, and on 'Change his remarks meet with universal approbation.

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoner of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times. The merest necessaries of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no raiment save that which is stark and stiffened with his clotted blood. Horrible as war is in all its features, assuredly it has no greater horrors than the long agony of the poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to soothe the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to his despairing mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the protection of their Government, have peculiar claims on the sympathies of their countrymen in Europe, and upon christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the profession of arms, but in exchanging the comforts, and often the luxuries, of home for the toils and hardships of a soldier's life, they obeyed a stern sense of duty and the call of their country in its extremest need. An unusual proportion, also, of those that fill the ranks of the Confederate armies belong to the higher walks of life, upon whom privations, such as are endured by prisoners in the hands of the North, fall with increased severity.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these sufferings which cannot altogether be relieved, Within little more than a twelvemonth, nearly £3,000 have been collected and expended in relief. The managers of the Fund are assisted in their efforts by self-devoted ladies in the principal Northern cities, who visit the sufferers and give them such aid as the means at their disposal render possible. Of late the North Government has granted permission that this Samatarian work may be done openly. It is earnestly hoped that all Southerners residing in South America will support the Fund to the extent of their ability, and its objects may recommend themselves to all, irrespective of country or political convictions, who sympathise with the sufferings of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J H Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer Bullding, Water Street, Liverpool or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq., 17 Saville Row, W.; in Paris, by H O Brewer, Esq., 6 Rue Circulare; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq, 24 Rue Lord Byron. j18im.
